

Seven essential factors to consider when hiring an interior designer

Here is our list of helpful questions to ask...

1. Clear Communication and Understanding of Your Vision

- How do you ensure that you understand my vision and style preferences?
- Can you walk me through your process of working with clients from the initial consultation to the final installation?
- How frequently will we communicate during the project?

2. A Portfolio That Aligns with Your Style

- Can I see examples of similar projects you've completed?
- Do you specialise in any particular design styles or types of projects?
- How flexible are you in adapting your style to meet my preferences?

3. Expertise in Budget Management

- How do you manage budgets, and what steps do you take to ensure we stay within budget?
- Will you provide a detailed cost estimate before we proceed with any purchases?
- Are you open to sourcing items that fit my budget?

4. Design Process and Flexibility

- How involved will I be in the design process?
- Are you open to making adjustments or changes if necessary?
- What happens if unexpected issues or delays arise during the project?

5. Access to Trusted Suppliers and Tradespeople

- Who are your preferred suppliers, and how do you select them?
- Do you have a network of trusted tradespeople for installation and construction work?
- How do you handle quality control with third-party suppliers?

6. Timeline and Project Management

- What is your typical project timeline?
- How do you ensure that deadlines are met?
- What steps do you take to avoid delays?

7. Aftercare and Ongoing Support

- What kind of aftercare or follow-up support do you offer?
- Will you assist with any issues that arise after installation?
- Can I reach out for additional services in the future?
